

American football in Germany. This is the field at Coblenz where the 89th Division won the championship of the A. E. F. before thousands of doughboys. Copyright, International Film.

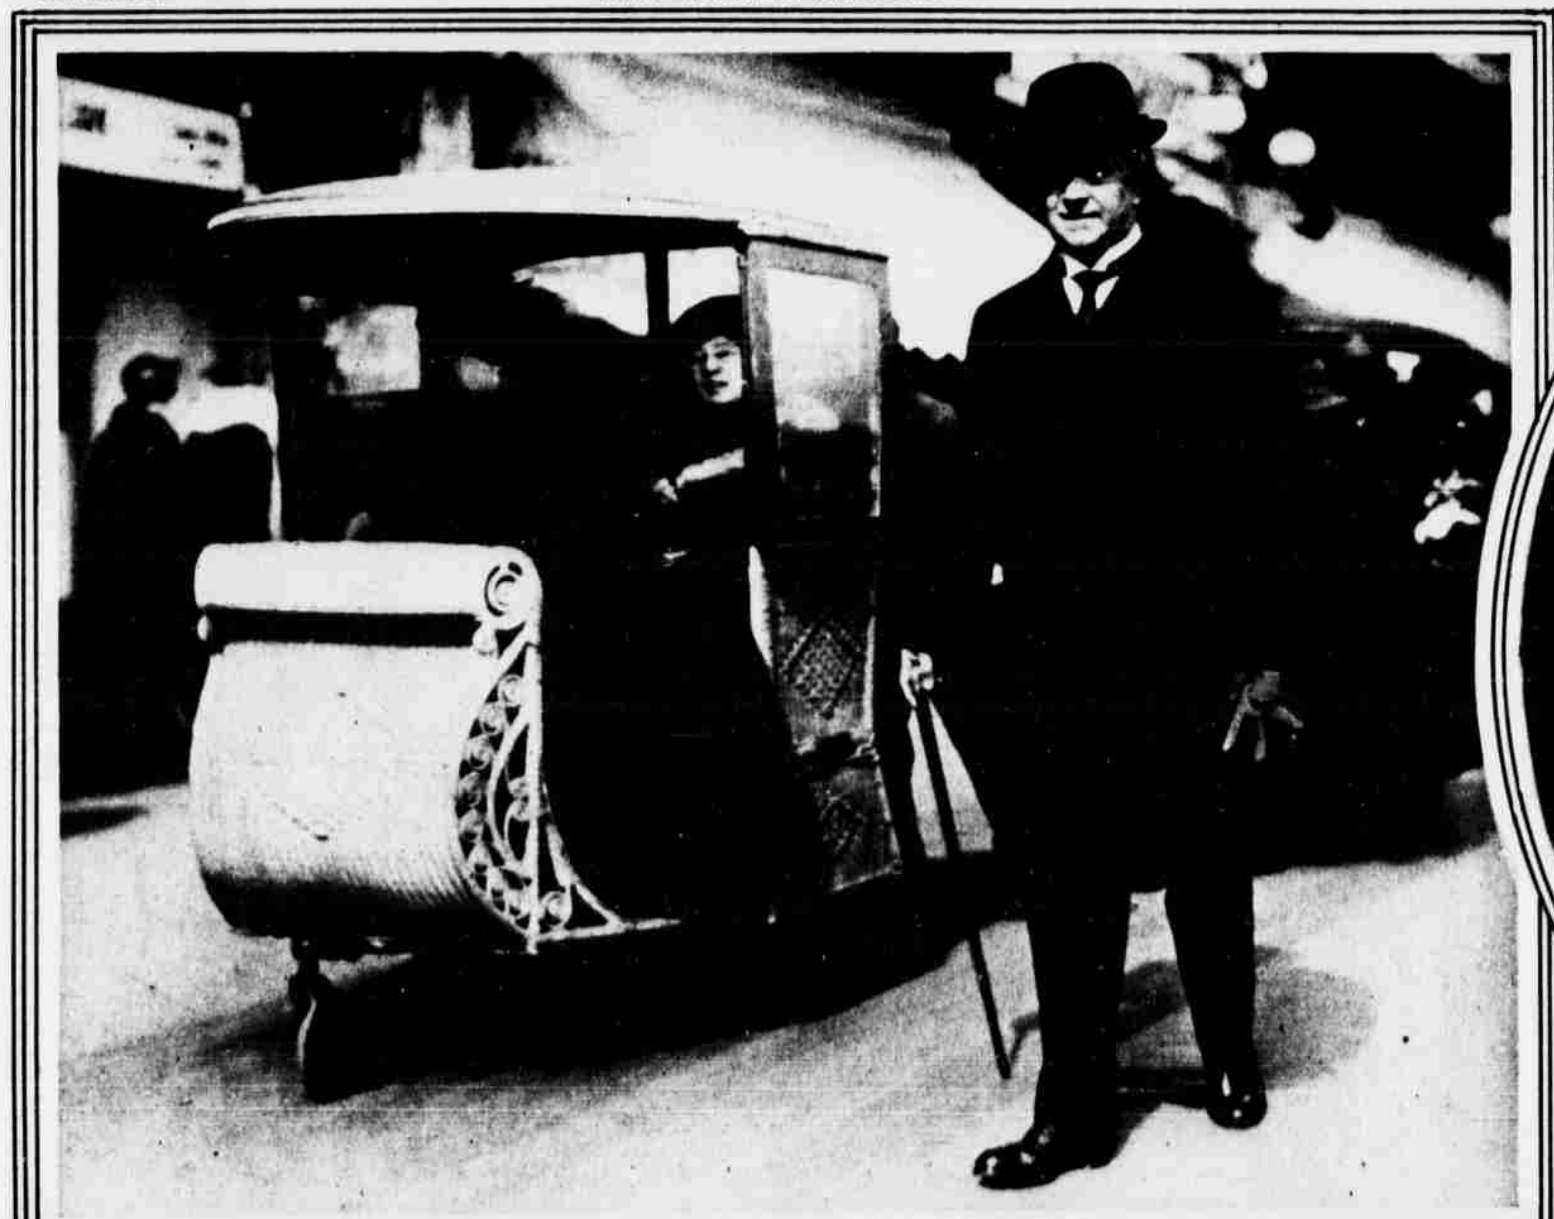

College boy antics were a feature of the contest. Here are some soldier clowns whose burlesque made a big hit with the spectators. Life in the Army of Occupation is not without its merry moments. Copyright, International Film.

Miss Elizabeth S. Wrentmore of Berkeley, Cal., has been reported to be engaged to Francis Burton Harrison, Governor-General of the Philippines. She is only 18 years of age and is a student in the University of California. Photo, International Film Service.

A pie foundry in France still running full blast. The doughboys like them the way mother used to bake and the Salvation Army keeps them coming hot and fresh from the oven. This shows the way it is done at Gondrecourt, where the appetites are good.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, on an April outing at Atlantic City. He looks extremely well. In the rolling chair are Mrs. Murphy and her daughter. Various notable New Yorkers may be seen strolling the famous Boardwalk these spring days. Photo from Underwood & Underwood.

Donna Graziella Castelli, daughter of Countess Castelli Solinas of Rome, with her mother, has been wintering in New York. Photo by Campbell Studios.